Call to Prayer

Ask • Seek • Knock • Matthew 7:7

10. Persecuted Church: Chad - Villages in parts of predominantly Christian southern Chad are routinely raided by militant Fulani Muslims, much in the way Christians are attacked in north-central Nigeria. While the goal of these raids is primarily to steal land for cattle grazing, there is definitely an element of persecution against Christians, and VOM is actively responding to these incidents. The radical Islamic group Boko Haram is also responsible for violent extremist activity in the Lake Chad Basin. More than 56% of Chadians are Muslims, while 25% identify as Christians.

- Pray that Chadian Christians who are persecuted for their faith by family members or Islamists will experience God's peace and provision.
- Pray that God will bless the evangelistic efforts of front-line workers, especially as they reach members of Islamic extremist groups.
- Pray that family members and Islamists who are persecuting Christians will repent and place their faith in Christ.
- Pray that members of the body of Christ in Chad will have access to the resources they need to grow as biblical disciples. -persecution.com

Giving

Giving is a worshipful response to God. There are three ways to give financially as part of Sunday morning worship.

1. Place your gift in the wooden boxes marked "offering" near the entrance to the church.
2. Online giving. You can make one time gifts or set up reoccurring giving through our online giving system. For more information, visit our website (aitkinchurch.com) or contact Sandy Pearson (treasurer@glorybchurch.org). Please create a profile PRIOR to making your donation, even if it is a one time gift.
3. Simply mail a check to the church office - Glory Baptist Church 28053 360th Ave. Aitkin, MN 56431
